Complementary independent participation counselling (EUTB®)

“EUTB® – independent counselling, self-determined participation.”

How does EUTB[®] counsel?

- free of charge and confidentially
- ahead of applying for benefits
- on an equal footing so that you can decide in a self-determined manner
- independently of providers paying for or delivering benefits
- complementing counselling by other services
- as your counsellors, we provide advice and guidance
- together we will look for participation options tailored to your individual needs
- in line with the principle “one for all“
- EUTB is all about peer counselling
- EUTB does not offer legal advice and support concerning administrative appeals and legal proceedings.

Whom does EUTB® counsel and on what?

A small dark blue circle containing a white lowercase letter 'i'.

Complementary independent participation counselling (EUTB® in German) offers free nationwide support and counselling to all persons with disabilities, persons at risk of disabilities and their relatives on all questions related to rehabilitation and participation.

Funding

The Federal Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs funds EUTB services across Germany pursuant to section 32 of Social Code Book IX.

The ministry pays pro rata for staff expenses and the cost of materials (including, in particular, special needs of persons seeking advice such as sign language interpreters).

Additional information

You will find the contact details of all EUTB[®] services and additional information on the accessible web portal www.teilhabeberatung.de (in German).

On your mobile phone, you can find the information using the free app “Teilhabeberatung“.

You can find the iOS app in the App Store.

The app for Android can be downloaded from the Google Play Store.

The app's content is also available in German sign language and German Easy Read.
